“Haunting on the Blue Ghost” Haunted House Fridays & Saturdays, Now – Nov. 2nd, Plus Halloween

CORPUS CHRISTI – The largest haunted house in South Texas and the most talked about ghoulish attraction in Corpus Christi—the “Haunting on the Blue Ghost” has officially re-opened its creaky doors aboard the USS Lexington Museum. The Castle of Terror Productions presents a frightening experience that you’ll never forget! This haunted house takes the bravest of souls down steep ladders, across dark corridors and through grisly hatchways, entering over 80 compartments on two decks of the historic aircraft carrier. With frights around every corner, this tour is only for the brave, so enter if you dare!

Tickets are $30 per person and $45 for VIP skip-the-line. Tickets are available to purchase online at thehaunting.fearticket.com, and can be purchased, day of event, at the USS Lexington Museum admission booths. The haunted house will be open 7:00 pm – 10:30 pm on Fridays and Saturdays now through November 2nd, plus Halloween.

Note: No refunds. More information is available at usslexington.com
